

CRITIQUE - BOSTON & DISTRICT CANINE SOCIETY

Judge: Mrs V Rusk

Congratulations Boston on a well run show. Pat, Ray, Sue, and all the committee work so hard, it has always been one of my favourite shows, thank you for my invitation to judge. I had some real quality dogs to go over, thank you so much for an excellent entry. Don't forget you always take the best dog home. Congratulations to A Bowler and Winterwell Iggy Inch on Best Special Beginner in Show under Mr Tan Nagrecha. He was also Best Puppy in the Breed.

Minor Puppy Dog (5). 1 Heath & Robinson's Pinseeker Pep Guardiola. Promising young lad, went well for a baby. 2 Milligan's Greyelf Tarron, nice one but doesn't need to grow any more. 3 Schoneville's Orchidstar Themisto by Balvenie.

BP. Liked this one the first time I saw him he is so well balanced everything in the right place, correct coat, in hard condition and moved like a mature dog. 2 Taylor and Morris' Pelenrise All Guns Blazing. A little apprehensive at first due to a fright he had at the weekend, however, he soon got over it and well deserved his place. One who should do well, movement was very good. 3 Schoneville's Orchidstar Themisto by Balvenie.
